North Carolina is where the award nominated band Celadon Candy hail from. The duo, Paul Allgood and Jason Bowden has been working diligently in their quest for worldwide success. Allgood and Bowden have been nominated for two awards at Stonewall Society's Pride In The Arts- Favourite Group for 2010, and Best Dance Record 2010 for their song "Undercutter." The Undercutter is a great new single which showcases a unique sound and brings Celadon Candy full circle into the next level of their journey. Watch this space for more to come from this talented duo!
